2014 LEGAL INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY WITH THE MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

The Charitable Foundation of the Energy Bar Association (CFEBA) is pleased to announce it plans to sponsor a Legal Intern at the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities (DPU) during the summer of 2014.

The DPU is the main state agency responsible for oversight of investor-owned electric power, natural gas, and water utilities in Massachusetts. For more information, see

<http://www.mass.gov/DPU>

Interns should be currently attending law school; preference will be given to 2nd year students. The CFEBA Legal Intern receives a stipend from the CFEBA, and works for the DPU's Legal Division on various projects, gaining experience in a variety of areas of energy law.

This year's stipend is $5,000 for an approximate 10-week internship.

If you are interested in applying for the 2014 CFEBA DPU Legal Internship, send a cover letter and resume to
